LOST IN MID-OCEAN.

The Steamer Iowa Abandoned at Sea.

SHE STRUCK A FIELD OF ICE.

The Crew of Seventy-Nine People Taken Off by a Passing Steamer and Brought to New York—Details of the Disaster.

Told by the Captain of the Lost Vessel.
NEW YORK, March 3.—The steamer Chester arrived at quarantine yesterday, bringing the officers and crew of the Warren line steamship Iowa, which was abandoned at sea, in a sinking condition, on Feb. 22. Capt. Tolle said that when he left the Iowa she was so full of water that her floating much longer was an impossibility.

Ernest W. Owens, captain of the Iowa, in his account of the accident says that his vessel sailed from Boston on Feb. 17, having on board a general cargo and 422 head of cattle. There was a crew of seventy-nine persons in all.

All went well until Saturday, Feb. 21, at noon, when the ship was passing through a field of thin ice, which became thicker. At midnight it was discovered that the ship was making much water.

Half an hour later a serious leak was found. The pumps were set at work but with no effect. The course of the Iowa was changed to cross the track of vessels bound east or west. All of the boats were swung and were watered and provisioned.

Daylight came with no improvement in the situation, and, to the great delight of the men, smoke could be seen to the southward. The Iowa was headed for it, and at 8 a. m. the steamship Chester, of Liverpool, was in close company. The Iowa was listed heavily to the starboard and water was in compartment No. 21. The situation was desperate. The boats were lowered and all on board left the Iowa at noon in latitude 46 degrees north, longitude 54 west. The captain says that they were received by Capt. Tolle, of the Chester, who treated them with the greatest courtesy and kindness. On Feb. 24 the steamship Dominion, from Portland to Boston, was boarded and a supply of provisions was obtained.

GETTING ONTO THE GANG.

A Confession Made in Court of a Very Startling Nature.

LIMA, O., March 3.—A profound sensation was created in court when the trial of James Bellock was about to be commenced. Bellock was arrested for complicity in the burglary of the residence of Levi Williams, several months ago, by which he lost over $1,000 worth of seal skins, diamonds, jewelry, etc.

Bellock weakened when he was put on the stand, and gave up the names of every one connected with this and other crimes which have been committed in this part of the state for the past two years, and other arrests will speedily follow. The authorities think they have got on to one of the worst gangs that ever invaded this part of the state. Their headquarters were in Springfield, Dayton, Toledo and this city.

Death of a Well Known Business Man.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Jackson H. Schultz died yesterday morning of diabetes at the age of 76 years. For more than forty years he was one of the best known business men in this city. Mr. Schultz was a member of the committee of seventy, which was appointed in 1871 after the Tweed ring, and finally reported a new charter for his city. He was a commissioner of the United States at the world's fair in Vienna, a very lively and aggressive member of the chamber of commerce, and a strong Republican in politics.

Held Up by Highway Robbers.

FINDLAY, O., March 3.—Monday morning about 1 o'clock Joseph Ingersoll was held up by two masked robbers on South Corry street between West Front and Washington streets, and relieved of $300. Ingersoll was on his way from his restaurant when he was met by these men who demanded his money. He denied that he had any, but while one of the men covered him with a revolver the other went through Ingersoll's pockets and found the money.

Tornado in Virginia.

PETERSBURG, Va., March 3.—A tornado passed over a large portion of Mecklenburg county Saturday night and was accompanied by a heavy fall of hail of unusual size. Orchards in many localities were completely ruined. Barns and outbuildings were blown down and carried a great distance by the wind. Dwelling houses rocked as if they would fall.

SHAKY AT FALMOUTH.

Fears That the Downards May Meet Mob Violence.

FALMOUTH, Ky., March 3.—The removal of the Downard brothers from the Covington jail yesterday to Falmouth, where their trial begins for the killing of Marshal Vogelsong, was the cause of renewing the strong and bitter feeling against them that was aroused at the time of the shooting.

The three Downards, against whom there is strong suspicion, were met at the station upon the arrival of the train at Falmouth by an immense crowd, and while no direct threats were made, yet fears were entertained for the safety of the prisoners. Col. O'Neal, one of the attorneys for the defense, made an effort to secure a change of venue to another county, claiming that a fair trial could be had where the feeling is so strong against the prisoners.

The murder, it will be remembered, was committed during the congressional convention at Falmouth last summer. The murdered marshal was very popular. He was called to his door about midnight and shot, the bullet piercing his heart. The court house was literally jammed during the day's session of the court and hundreds were unable to gain admittance.

ELLIOTT-OSBORN SHOOTING.

A Special Grand Jury Called to Investigate the Columbus Tragedy.

COLUMBUS, O., March 3.—A special grand jury has been empaneled to investigate the Elliott-Osborn tragedy, which occurred here last week. A large number of witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear before the jury which will meet at 10 o'clock to-day.

It is thought that the selection of jurors has been exceptionally fortunate in the case from the fact that of the twenty names drawn from the box, twelve were the names of non-residents of the city and they thus will not likely be prejudiced. There are some other cases to be considered by the jury, but the charges against the Elliotts will be taken up first, and the investigation will be concluded at the earliest possible day. The prosecuting attorney will endeavor to have their cases placed at the head of the docket and disposed of within the next few weeks.

THE TRUTH BAD ENOUGH.

But the Reports From Yuma Are Very Much Exaggerated.

YUMA, Ariz., March 3.—The river has fallen to almost the level of the water before the last flood. News from the valleys says that everything is under water, and much destruction to property resulted.

The Gila river changed its course in several places. At Gila City the railroad track is covered for miles by water ten feet deep. The statement is made that the great loss of life reported here is untrue and absolutely incorrect. One man only is so far known to have been drowned. The death of others in the valley is reported, but not yet confirmed.

Indiana Wheat Crop All Right.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 3.—Advice received by the state board of agriculture indicate that the growing wheat crop has not undergone any material change, and the prospect for more than an average crop is the most flattering for several years. The warm, wet weather has been favorable to a luxuriant growth, and the roots are believed to be sufficiently well protected to stand the changeable weather of the present month.

Cutting Down Their Working Force.

ACRORA, Ill., March 3.—Over 400 men have been discharged from the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy car and locomotive shops here. The laboratory has been practically abandoned and the working force at the shops reduced fully 50 per cent. This is the biggest cut made by the company since 1876.

Will Wait for the Office Himself.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

TWO EXTRA LONG SESSIONS HELD

Both Senate and House Transact Business Until After Midnight—A Vast Amount of Legislation Accomplished—Other News From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—In the senate yesterday the house amendment to the tonnage subsidy bill was passed. The bill now goes to the president. Mr. Gray was appointed an additional member of the select committee on commercial relations with Canada.

Mr. Manserson was elected president pro tempore of the senate—succeeding Mr. Ingalls.

The credentials of James H. Kyle as senator from South Dakota, and of John B. Gordon, as senator from Georgia, were placed on file.

A house bill relating to the treaty of reciprocity with the Hawaiian islands, and house joint resolution appropriating $1,000,000 for the improvement of the Mississippi river, to be immediately available, were passed.

The postoffice appropriation bill was passed with an amendment appropriating $1,500,000 for the transportation of foreign mails.

The conference report on the Indian depredations bill was agreed to.

The agricultural appropriation bill was passed with amendments.

The senate then proceeded to the consideration of the general deficiency bill. The bill was temporarily laid aside, and the conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill was agreed to.

At 6 p. m. the senate took a recess until 8 p. m.

At the evening session the vote by which the senate last week passed house bill to pay judgments of the court of claims of army supplies, under the Bowman act, was, on motion of Mr. Harris, reconsidered; all the senate amendments which had been agreed to were disagreed to, including the Chouteau claim of $749,000, and the bill was again passed without amendment. The reason assigned for this course was that the amendments could not possibly be acted upon in the house, and that if this course was not followed the whole bill would fail.

On motion of Mr. Edmunds the select committee to establish the University of the United States was continued during the recess.

The consideration of the deficiency bill was proceeded with. The two items to pay to the widow of Chief Justice Waite and Justice Miller one year's salary—$10,500 and $10,000—were opposed by Mr. Perry as an unauthorized gift of the people's money.

Mr. George also opposed the item and Messrs. Blackburn, Edmunds, Morgan and Blair championed it. Finally, the vote was taken and the amendment passed—yeas 49, nays 10.

The proposition of the house to give a month's extra pay to the officers and employees of the house was struck out.

All the committee amendments having been disposed of Mr. Spooner moved an amendment to increase the appropriation for the public building at Dallas, Tex., to $250,000. Agreed to.

The bill was reported to the senate but final action was reserved on the bill and amendments till to-day.

The conference report on the legislative appropriation bill was presented and agreed to; after an explanation by Mr. Allison that all controverted points had been arranged except two—those as to clerks of committees now receiving a per diem compensation and as to clerks to senators now receiving a per diem compensation—both these classes having been placed on the annual list by the senate. A further conference was ordered.

The conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill was presented and went over without action.

Senate joint resolution providing for the first meetings of the several circuit courts of the United States, providing by act of the present session, on the third Tuesday of June, 1891, was reported and passed.

The message from the house in relation to the death of Representative Phelan, of Tennessee, was laid before the senate. The usual resolutions of regret and condolence were offered by Mr. Harris, and agreed to. Remarks in eulogy of the deceased were made by Messrs. Harris, Jones of Arkansas, Daniel and Bate, and, as a further mark of respect, the senate at 1:55 a. m. adjourned.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—In the house senate amendments to the Indian appropriation bill were non-concurred in and the bill was sent to conference.

Senate bills were passed for the erection of a new mint building in Philadelphia at a cost not to exceed $2,000,000, and for the erection of a new custom house in the city of New York—the present custom house to be sold for not less than $4,000,000, and the proceeds to be used for the purpose of constructing the new building.

Senate bill granting a pension of $2,500 a year to the widow of Admiral Porter was passed.

The conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill was agreed to.

The conference report on the copyright bill was reported. An agreement was arrived at on all except the provision that the home copyright shall not prevent the importation of like articles from abroad. A further conference was ordered.

The postoffice appropriation bill was sent to conference, and the house took a recess until 8:30 in the evening.

When the house met in the evening Mr. Hatch, of Missouri, moved to suspend the rules and pass, with amendments, the senate bill to provide for the inspection of live cattle, hogs and the carcasses and products thereof, which are the subjects of interstate commerce. The motion was agreed to and the bill passed.

The speaker appointed the following committee to attend the funeral of the late Senator Hearst: Messrs. Clunie, McKinley, Blount, Geary, Tucker, McComas, Caruth, O'Neill, of Massachusetts, and McAdoo.

The conference report was adopted on the bill providing for the publishing of copies of the report on the diseases of the horse. It appropriates $75,000 for the printing of 100,000 copies.

The conference report on the Indian appropriation bill disagreeing with the senate on the appropriation of $1,500,000 to pay the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians for the title and interest they may have in certain lands now occupied by the Choctaw and Arapahoe Indians, was called up and after considerable debate, Mr. Cannon offered a resolution instructing the conference not to agree to the amendment.

The motion was defeated—yeas 74, nays 102.

The conference report was agreed to and a further conference was ordered.

On motion of Mr. Stockbridge, conference report was agreed to on the bill authorizing the secretary of the treasury to suspend for one year the provisions of the act requiring steamers plying on the lakes and inland waters to carry life-carrying projectiles.

The house then, at 1 o'clock, took a recess until 10 o'clock to-day.

Weather Crop Bulletin.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The weather crop bulletin for the month ending Feb. 28, 1891, issued by the signal office yesterday says: The weather for the month was generally mild throughout the winter wheat region, attended by excessive precipitation. The month closed with a decided cold wave, preceded by general rains throughout the entire wheat region, but owing to the backward condition of the crop, it is probable that no serious injury will result from this sudden freeze. There is an excess of moisture throughout the greater portion of the wheat region, and the month of March opens with general snows throughout the northwest, and conditions favorable for rain covering the central valleys.

The Postal Subsidy Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The postal subsidy bill passed by the senate yesterday and which now goes to the president authorizes the postmaster-general to contract with the owners of American built vessels offered by American citizens for carrying the mails, the contracts to be equitably distributed between the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf of Mexico. An appropriation of $1,250,000 is made for the payment of subsidies to vessels with which contracts are made.

A Money Lending Scheme.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Mr. Connell, of Nebraska, introduced in the house yesterday (by request) a bill to provide a system for the creation of money, and to provide for its loaning to the states and territories and from the states to the counties and by the counties to citizens.

Relief for Indians.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Secretary Noble has approved the recommendation of the Indian agent at Yuma, Ariz., that $1,000 be expended for the relief of those Indians who sustained losses to their property on account of the recent flood.

Call for Bank Statements.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Comptroller Lacy yesterday issued a call for a statement of the condition of National banks at the close of business Feb. 26.

ACCOMPLISHED NOTHING.

No Prospects for a Settlement of the Pennsylvania Cokers' Strike.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., March 3.—The conference of the mine workers' scale committee and the coke operators of this region here yesterday on the wage difficulties failed to accomplish anything and adjourned sine die. The operators would not agree to renew negotiations for the adjustment except on the basis of a general reduction of 10 per cent., which the miners' representatives declined to do.

Secretary McBride says it is no longer an amicable shut-down, but a strike. A large part of the United Mine Workers' defense fund will be devoted to the support of the coke region strike.

The region is much excited, and the strikers are making preparations for a three months' struggle. At the Union Mine Worker convention here yesterday, resolutions were passed to stand out. None of Rainey's works were raided by the strikers yesterday.

A Threatened Strike Averted.

DENVER, March 3.—A special to The Republican from Salt Lake, Utah, says: Chief Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers' grievance committee, met the officials of the Denver and Rio Grand railroad here yesterday. After a conference lasting three hours an agreement was reached by mutual concessions and the threatened strike on that road averted.

KANSAS CITY, March 3.—A masked robber entered the residence of J. S. Morris last night. A daughter of the owner of the house, Miss Clara, was in the parlor alone. The robber told her he would kill her if she screamed. He attempted to take her diamond ring from her finger, but it was too tight. He then took her gold watch and tore her diamond earrings from her ears. The robber then made his escape. The young lady's ears were badly mutilated.

Collision of Freight Trains.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, March 3.—A collision between two Wabash freight trains near Carbon, Davis county, yesterday, resulted in fatal injuries to two passengers, William and Oren Hunt, of Downing, Mo. brakeman Long Bledsoe had an eye torn out, and three other trainmen were slightly injured.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

TUESDAY, MARCH 3, 1891.

A MIDDLESBOROUGH citizen says there is too much money up there for the town to fail.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has approved the Direct Tax bill. Kentucky will get $900,000.

PORTER'S census gives Shelby County 2,200 less population than it had in 1880, and yet the taxable wealth of the county increased nearly $1,000,000 in the same decade.

SENATOR BLAIR realized long ago, no doubt, that his pet educational measure was too dead to ever be resurrected, and he is not apt to decline that appointment as Minister to China.

At Helena, Montana, last Saturday was the coldest of the winter so far. Yesterday was the warmest of the season at that place. One can enjoy all sorts of weather in this land in the course of a few hours.

MESSRS. FRAZER & BROWNING, who will soon open a warehouse for the sale of tobacco in the bulk, are receiving words of encouragement from the farmers. Let everything be done to make the enterprise a successful one. It will be of benefit not only to the growers but also to Maysville.

The Owensboro Messenger remarks that if "Senator Blackburn concludes to come home and assume the anti-Cleveland leadership in this State the situation will be novel as well as interesting."

The Senator will hardly conclude to do anything of the kind. He knows it would be a losing game for him to play.

"The Republican party recognizes the fact that it was beaten last fall on the tariff, the Force bill and House rules issues. It is making every effort to change the issues. It is trying to substitute the currency for the tariff. On the tariff issue we are certain to keep New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, and to add Massachusetts and Rhode Island, and possibly New Hampshire in the East, and Minnesota and with almost equal certainty we may say Wisconsin and Illinois."

This from the National Democrat should serve as a timely warning to the party. The Republicans are afraid to face the country again on the issues of the campaign last fall, but they should be made to "toe the mark."

Mrs. GENERAL JOHN A. LOGAN has taken a hand in the Illinois Senatorial deal lock. Here's the way she talks to the Republican members:

"Better be defeated by an organized honorable opposition than to be denigrated and disorganized by an ignominious surrender of principle. Stand firmly together and command the confidence and respect of intelligent people, even though you might be temporarily unsuccessful. It is against reason, sense and all usage that a minority so small should dictate to a great majority of recognized honorable representatives of honest principles."

This is a center shot at the three F. M. R. A. members, and if there are any weak-kneed Republicans it will strengthen them in their struggle. Mrs. Logan's letter may rile those F. M. R. A. members, and then General John M. Palmer will be the next Senator. There's no telling.

Cost of Senator Beck's Funeral.

When a member of Congress dies it costs the National Government a pretty snug sum to lay his remains in their last resting place. Three Senators—the lamented Senator Beck, of this State, Senator Wilson, of Maryland, and Senator Hearst, of California. The two last passed away only recently.

"The bills on file in the office of Secretary of the Senate," says a writer, "show that Beck's funeral cost the Government about $5,000. Some of the items are interesting. For instance, the Washington undertaker presented a bill of $738.50, of which about $500 was for the casket and $100 for embalming the remains. Three Pullman palace cars were used by the party in going to and returning from Lexington, for which $300 was paid. For carriages in Washington to convey the parties to the depot, $131 was paid; railroad fare to and from Lexington, $1,553.25; hotel keeper in Lexington for entertaining the party one day, $494.75; Lexington undertaker for handling remains from the depot to the grave, $148; meals, lunches, champagne, etc., taken by the party while on the train, $729.05. The other incidental items bring the amount up to the $5,000 estimated."

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of Crawford & Short was dissolved by mutual consent Feb. 28th, 1891. Mr. Crawford retires, and he is authorized to settle all the firm's business.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

Congressman Harter's Answer to General Denver's Free Coinage Argument.

General Denver, a prominent Ohio Democrat, once candidate for Congress in the District opposite Maysville, came out in an article recently in favor of the free coinage of silver. Hon. Michael D. Harter, another prominent Democrat of that State, Congressman-elect from the Mansfield district, has issued a reply to the General's argument, says the Enquirer, from which we glean the following:

Mr. Harter says the Democratic party should offer as a dollar an article that should be worth as near 100 cents as possible. The fact that a certain amount of silver was worth 100 cents in 1792, as advanced by Mr. Denver, he argues, has but very little to do with the case at point. If he had owed the General in 1792 100 cents and had offered him an amount of silver worth that sum it would have been accepted, but if he had offered only 76 cents worth of silver in payment of the debt he would have been put down as a rogue. It is quite immaterial to the Democratic party whether our dollars be of gold, silver or paper, as long as whatever is made a legal tender for a dollar shall be worth $1. The talk of the party being opposed to silver or being a friend of gold he thought preposterous. In support of giving good weight Mr. Harter quotes very felicitously from the Bible. In the event that 76 cents is made a legal tender for a dollar, he believes the Government alone should make the profit of 24 cents, and not the silver ring. To do otherwise would be highway robbery on the people.

If it should be decided to permit the unlimited coinage of a 76-cent dollar, he thinks that the 100-cent dollar can not be circulated with it. So long as the cheap coinage is limited in safe bounds, the two will circulate on a parity, as they do now. Thus far the 76-cent dollar has been kept alongside of the other because of the limit placed upon the production. This is the key to the question from a non-partisan standpoint, says Mr. Harter. The party is opposed to class legislation, and while it will take good care that the silver miners, bullion owners and speculators have their rights, it will also see that the people are not cheated and robbed in order to pour riches on a small though remarkably rich class.

If laws were made to call 1,500 pounds of hay a ton and three pecks a bushel, and if people were compelled to take the weights as legal, how many voters would the Democratic party have or deserve to have? As a suggestion he affords a plan as follows: "Free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver, but let no coin made at the mints for ten years be a legal tender."

The Reform Club, whose existence Mr. Denver doubted, has given the cause of the people and the Democratic party in its great struggle against the so-called protective tariff more help and comfort than any other organization in the United States. What is more natural than it should come forward to fight the Silver bill which in regard to a piece of class legislation. There was no crime of '73, as Mr. Denver denominates the demonization of silver in that year. That action was brought about by natural causes. Silver had risen to a practical premium of three cents, and was out of circulation except in the subsidiary coin that had to be debased in order to hold it. If a trifling premium of 3 per cent. would drive silver out, it would be a kindergarten task to see that with an unlimited coinage of silver, with gold worth anywhere from 25 to 31 per cent. more than the white metal, the yellow stuff would be driven entirely from the circulation, a contraction of the currency caused and more men ruined than the wars of the country have killed.

There are now about $1,500,000,000 of circulating money in this country, of which $600,000,000 are of gold. Drive this out and any man owing considerable money would be ruined beyond all hopes of resurrection.

The following advertisement, published by a prominent Western patent medicine house would indicate that they regard disease as a punishment of sin: "Do you wish to know the quickest way to cure a severe cold? We will tell you. To cure a cold quickly, it must be treated before the cold has become settled in the system. This can always be done if you choose to, as nature in her kindness to man gives timely warning and plainly tells you in nature's way, that as a punishment for some indiscretion, you are to be afflicted with a cold unless you choose to ward it off by prompt action. The first symptoms of a cold, in most cases, is a dry, loud cough and sneezing. The cough is soon followed by a profuse watery expectoration and the sneezing by a profuse watery discharge from the nose. In severe cases there is a thin white coating on the tongue. What to do? It is only necessary to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in double doses every hour. That will greatly lessen the severity of the cold and in most cases will effectually counteract it, and cure what would have been a severe cold within one or two days time. Try it and be convinced." ## Railway News.

The C. and O. has established a station at Willow Grove, mouth of Snag Creek, in Bracken.

Captain W. J. Walsh has been appointed General Roadmaster of the K. C. R. R., with a clerk and two super-visors.

The earnings of the C. and O. for the third week of February show an increase of $20,333.26 over those for the corresponding week of last year.

The Kentucky Central during December last was operated on about 35 per cent. of its gross earnings. A road that is operated on 60 per cent. of the annual gross earnings is operated at less than the average cost of operating roads in the United States. The Kentucky Central, it is said, however, has been operated right along on 55 per cent. of its gross earnings.

The Louisville Post says: "The dream of President Ingalls, of the C. and O., which gives him what can be termed an unobstructed entrance into the city of Washington, has at last been realized. It was President Ingalls' original intention to build an independent line of his own from Gordonsville, on the main line of the C. and O., into the city of Washington, thus paralleling the Richmond and Danville, which line the C. and O. has been using from Charlottesville, Va., into the National Capital. Mr. Ingalls has been able to perfect a traffic arrangement which will go into effect on April 1, whereby he will run his famous Fast Flying Virginian straight through from the Ohio river to Washington, with as much independence as if he owned the entire line. He has saved the expense of building a new branch, and has about the same facilities as he would have had by the construction of a parallel line."

ABERDEEN.

It is settled we are to have a new school house, but when?

Mr. T. H. Ellis, of Washington City, is visiting his parent here.

Mr. W. H. Clark has moved into the Marvin property, on Second street.

It is hinted that there will soon be another newspaper here. Well, lead her forth.

O. H. P. Thomas is in Houston, Texas, looking after his real estate affairs at that place.

Mr. D. M. King has resigned his position as Marshal. Mr. J. B. Jones succeeds him.

The Gretna Green's outfit has arrived, and that paper will be printed in Aberdeen hereafter.

Mr. J. F. Ellis will erect a new house on the lot now occupied by his old one, in the near future.

Miss Tilly Brooker has accepted a position as saleslady at Pogue's dry goods store Cincinnati.

The "cloud sufferers" of this place are moving back to their water-soaked dwellings on Front.

Mrs. Gwynne Marvin has returned home after a week's visit at her mother's, Mrs. Liggett, of Ripley.

"Is life worth living?" Not unless you advertise. Try it now in the BULLETIN and be convinced.

"Aberdeen is at last in the swim," remarked one man to another as they viewed the Ohio last week.

The St. Lawrence had a large amount of freight for this place Monday, the result of a week's accumulation.

The Legislature has finally passed the bill authorizing Aberdeen school district to issue bonds to pay indebtedness.

The projected line held by Bevs, Jackson and Cox, of Maysville, are projecting a grand success. About ten converts so far.

When you want a paper detailing daily happenings and free from stale news and chestnuts, subscribe for the Maysville EVENING BULLETIN.

During the recent high water the bridge below town reached one of its highest tides, when South's Ark was the principal resort for life-seekers.

Slickaway protracted meeting came to a close Sunday night to the dissatisfaction of the town boys. The question now is, "Who adjusted the clothes pin?"

In the distribution of the county taxes a few days ago, Humboldt Township got $2,552.54, the corporation of Aberdeen, $2,987.79, and Aberdeen school, $1,022.50. Ripley received $2,991.83, and Ripley school, $1,008.17. The largest amount that went to any one township was $4,121.13, Union Township receiving it.

A few months ago, John Miller shot and killed George Baringer and Isaac Allen in the northern part of this county. Baringer's administrator brought suit against Miller for $20,000 damages, and Allen's administrator sued for $10,000. It looks like it was a good bluff on the part of both plaintiffs, as they have compromised for $150 each.

Mr. Jesse Ellis, the Mayor, tells a good one on the Junior of the Slickaway Church. He was walking down the street the other day, when he was stopped by the addressd Junior, who wanted to know if there was a law prosecuting tobacco chewers. Of course Mr. Ellis wanted to know why. "Because," said the Junior, "these Aberdeen boys have colored that one-time white floor of our church to a deep walnut."

On being told that there was no such law, the Junior turned away in despair, at the same time muttering something that sounded remarkably like "hang such a country."

day night begin a protracted meeting at the M. E. Church on Broadway.

A very popular gentleman from near Charleston, who, by the way, a prosperous farmer, will, in the near future, visit Fern Leaf's most popular teacher. More anon.

Rev. Frank Savage and wife, late of Dover, are occupying the Downing property on Main street. They will remain here until fall, when they will remove to their farm near Dexter.

Miss Kate Greene, of Ripley, who has been Professor Curry's assistant, returned to her home last Saturday. She was accompanied by Professor Charles Willis, of Brooksville, whom we have from reliable parties, will lead her to the hymenaeal altar when the "roses begin to bloom." Accept our congratulations in advance. Friend Charles.

Our public school closed last Friday, but Professor Curry, the efficient principal, has secured a large number of scholars, and school will continue until June without any interruption. This makes the second term taught by Professor Curry here, and it is needless to say he has given general satisfaction to the patrons. He is a careful and painstaking teacher.

MURPHYVILLE.

On the 23rd of February it pleased the Lord to call unto himself little Willie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Huddleston, aged six months and twenty-three days. "The Lord giveth and taketh away, blessed be the Lord." "And they brought unto him infants that he could teach them, but when the disciples saw they rebuked them, but Jesus said unto the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." May God bless the bereaved parents. Little Willie's stay was short and sweet, yet we laid her low as Jesus' feet calmly with a sinless slave said, "praying a prayer 'thy will, not mine, be done.'"

Like early morning dew drops,
Like newly-budded flowers,
So sweetly the little jewels
Just to bloom in Eden bowers.

Willie, we shall meet you
When the pearls gates unfold,
And then will never leave you,
But will walk the streets of gold.

FLEMING TO THE FRONT

The First Crop of Tobacco for Frazee & Browning's Auction Warehouse Comes from that County.

The first crop of tobacco was received yesterday by the new auction warehouse of Frazee & Browning. It was brought in by Mr. George L. Dobyns, of Fleming County. Mr. Dobyns has another crop which he is trying to get ready for the opening sale, and other farmers of his county have expressed their intention of bringing their tobacco here. All the Mason County farmers talked to on the subject are warmly in favor of the warehouse, and several more crops are expected in a few days, one of about 13,000 pounds.

The farmers wish to sell in a market where there is lively competition, and which can be reached by them at little expense. They believe the plan adopted by Messrs. Frazee & Browning will give the growers just such a market.

We understand the firm will hold their opening sale within a few days if the weather will permit the delivery of several crops now ready.

All farmers who have their crops ready for market should bring it in for this initial auction.

He was acquitted.

"Uncle Hiram."

A strong, well-balanced play is "Uncle Hiram," holding its interest to the end, while its comedy elements are in the highest degree entertaining. As the unsophisticated but withal decidedly sharp old farmer, Hiram Homespun, Mr. A. H. Woodhull has broad opportunity for the exercise of his excellent talents as an actor, and does so with irresistible effect upon the risibilities of the audience. It is an immensely catching individualization. The play is produced with fine scenery specially painted for it. Its representation will no doubt be greatly enjoyed, as will also the splendid music provided by the "Uncle Hiram" Orchestra and Brass Band, a notable combination of artists.

This comedy will be the attraction at the opera house Thursday night. Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

March Storms

In his weekly predictions, Foster, the weather prophet, says: "March storms are usually of more force than those of other months, because the equator of the earth is then toward the sun and the electric influence thrown off over the earth's equator is the more active because it is in direct contact with the sun and moves from the earth to the sun."

"There will be two special, though not very great, storm periods in March, one about the 8th and the other about the 26th, the former most severe in the Eastern States and the latter in the West. The first of these storms will be due to leave the Pacific coast about the 6th, cross the Rocky-Allegheny Valley from the 7th to 9th and reach Eastern States about the 10th. On the 10th and 11th this storm will be dangerous along the Atlantic coast from Massachusetts to Labrador. This storm will probably divide as it passes the Mississippi valley, one passing through the Southern and the other through the Northern States. About that time very rapid and sudden changes may be expected in the weather."

PREPARING FOR WAR

England Wants to Increase Her Navy.

THE SUBJECT IN PARLIAMENT.

It is Discussed, But No Action Taken. Statue of John Wesley Unveiled in London—Crispien Wishes to Return to Power—Other Cable Information.

LONDON, March 3.—Sir J. C. Colombe moved in the house of commons yesterday that the navy estimates henceforth state the total number of warships in commission, reserve and building, the aggregate tonnage of the mercantile marine and the value of sea-borne commerce, as compared with foreign powers. He said he desired to know how far English commerce was protected in the event of war.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt said the remarks of Sir J. Colombe were similar to the notes of alarm which naval experts were accustomed to issue to induce the nation to believe that the naval expenditures, enormous as they were, would be inadequate in the event of war. By the declaration of Paris the trade of a belligerent would be perfectly safe; for it could come in under a neutral flag.

Lord George Hamilton, of the admiralty did not agree with Mr. Harcourt's views. How, he asked, could England's vast tonnage be suddenly transferred to a neutral flag? What if wheat should be declared contraband of war? English ship owners were unwise to trust so much to the declaration of Paris. England must have a navy over the world.

Admiral Colombe's motion was negatived without a division.

Statue of John Wesley Unveiled.

LONDON, March 3.—Yesterday being the one hundredth anniversary of the death of John Wesley, the great theologian and founder of Methodism, a statue in his honor was unveiled in the presence of a large concourse of people in front of the City Road chapel, the headquarters of the Wesleyans. The Rev. Frederick William Farrer, Archdeacon of Westminster, took part in the ceremonies, and afterwards, with Sir Robert F. Fowler, one of the members of parliament for London city, addressed a meeting in the City Road chapel, extolling the virtues of Wesley.

Crispien Again Seeking Power.

ROME, March 3.—It is stated that the ex-premier Crispien expects to return to power, and that he has approached the holy see with a view to persuade the papal authorities to concessions to the minister of marines, as the latter's cabinet cannot last. Signor Crispien said to have insisted that the pope ought not to allow the Catholics to support the government at elections, and promised that if he returns to power he will make concessions to the Vatican.

The Kaiser Becoming Reconciled.

LONDON, March 3.—The emperor has, it is stated in a Berlin dispatch, decided not to demand any explanation from France as to the treatment of his mother. SENATOR HEARST'S FUNERAL Delayed Until Thursday So as Not to Interfere With Congressional Business.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Senator Hearst will be held on Thursday morning. They will take place at his late residence, and will be brief and simple.

The day of the funeral is delayed until Thursday so as to enable the members of the senate and house, who desire to attend the funeral, to do so without interfering with the pressing business that demands their attention during the few remaining days in which congress will be in session. On Thursday night or Friday morning the remains will be deposited in a private car attached to a regular train, and started on their way to San Francisco, where the interment will take place. Mrs. Hearst and her son, and possibly some intimate friends of the family, will accompany the remains.

Much interest is manifested in this meeting as the League is expected to take some action in regard to the recent withdrawal of the American Association from the National agreement.

Said the Convicts Saws.

BOSTON, March 3.—Governor Russell has unearthed a big scandal in connection with the management of the Massachusetts state prison, which will result in the decapitation of eight or ten guards and a retention of a great number of prisoners. For two months past the convicts have been cutting their way out of the prison. The governor started an investigation and it disclosed the fact that the prisoners were furnished with the means of escape by the very guards who were sworn to keep them in confinement. For a long time past certain of the guards, about eight or ten out of fifty, have been making money out of the convicts by selling them saws and revolvers. The state authorities have been wondering all the time why the convicts were escaping so easily.

The Navas a Rioters.

BALTIMORE, March 3.—The mandate in the cases of George S. Key, Henry Jones and Edward Smith, the three Navas rioters, who are under sentence of death, was received from the supreme court of the United States yesterday by James W. Chew, clerk of the United States circuit court. The decision of the lower court is affirmed, and the prisoners will now have to be brought into court and sentenced to be hanged. An effort will then be made to get the president to commute them to life sentences.
